Meet the doctor

Dr. David Baumgarten was thrilled to follow in his father's (Steven Baumgarten MD, FCCP) footsteps and joined PSASJ in the summer of 2019. When not working, Dr. David Baumgarten enjoys spending time with his wife, two sons, and their beagle, Jasper. Together, he and his family have a passion for traveling, spending time outdoors, and hiking. They also love seeking out the latest and greatest restaurants.

He is seeing patients at our Willingboro office and Marlton office!
